

incompetent to adopt it. This would cause prolonged trouble. If the money goes into the hands of the associations, it is bound to fail, but the French treasury, legal proceedings will serve to keep it from everybody for many years, and then it will fall to the state. Meantime Messrs. Munroe & Co., the Paris bankers, have funded the whole in securities bearing 5 per cent. interest realizing £2,500 annually. This amount added to the fund, will reach a large total before the vexed legal question can be set-

Sarcophagus of Emperor Frederick.
BERLIN, Oct. 18.—The sarcophagus of the Emperor Frederick was placed on his tomb to-day with considerable pomp and ceremony, his being the birthday of the late Emperor. The figure of the dead Kaiser lies stretched on his cloak in the uniform of his cuirassiers, the body protected by the cuirass, on which the chain of the Order of the Black Eagle is visible. On the left arm rests the Emperor's sword, with palms, and the hands are crossed on his breast and hold the Empress's wreath. Over the face and falling to the ground in artistic folds, is the Imperial Austrian flag, richly ornamented with its crowns and eagle. At the other end of the sarcophagus, which is 10 feet long, 4 feet wide and 3 feet high, are three medallions—Charity, with two children, the Empress, with her crown and a sword, and the same goddess teaching the youth the arts of peace, on the right, and the arts of war, on the left, a long relief representing Charon taking the deceased across the river Styx to two figures of the Emperor Frederick and the Empress William I. The Empress Frederick was present, also the Kaiser's daughter, the Princess Victoria, and the world.

Chili's General Election.
SANTIAGO, Oct. 18.—The general election occurred throughout Chili to-day (Sunday.) So far as known there were no disorders. Electors were chosen to-day who will select the President next month. There is no indication yet as to who will be elected, or as candidates for the office have been announced. The Clerical party claim that they have secured a majority in the House of Deputies, and that they will probably be controlled by the Liberals. The exact result will not be known for several days. There was a street parade for the troops to-day.

Another Storm Raging.
QUEENSTOWN, Oct. 18.—Since 3 o'clock this afternoon a heavy rain with wind has prevailed. This is accompanied by an abnormally high tide, and flooded the custom-house wharves, and the wharves and the admiralty docks were greatly damaged.

All local traffic has been suspended, owing to the violence of the cross-canal winds. There is report that the severity of the storm is unprecedented.

A Volcano Arises from the Sea.

ROME, Oct. 18.—The earthquake shocks at the Island of Pantellaria and its vicinity continue. A volcano has arisen in the bed of the sea off the Island of Pantellaria, which ejects masses of stones to a great height.

Cable Notes.

A vast number of the people of Dublin made a pilgrimage to the grave of Mr. Parnell yesterday.

The Pope is preparing an allocation concerning the recent French pilgrim disorders at the Pantheon.

The wife of the late William Henry Smith, the leader in the British House of Commons in 1885, is to be married to Lord Strangford.

The Pekin government has directed its ambassador at St. Petersburg to demand explanation from Russia for her encroachments upon the rights of Persia. Thereafter are to be effected that the Shah of Persia has appointed Mr. Pratt, the ex-minister of the United States to Persia, to be the Persian commissioner to the United States.

The sudden death of Inspector-general Accolas, of the French Home Office, has caused a sensation in Paris. While visiting in London he was overtaken by a stroke, and the effect was fatal. M. Accolas was a married man, and the revelation of his death under such circumstances was a most painful shock to his friends.

Representatives of the European press in Paris complain of a very unpleasant instance of pro-Russianism. The important question of a system of international control, including the control of the foreign affairs of the Chamber of Deputies, becoming the subject of a bill, the bill was yesterday elected as their dozen Mr. Bowes, of the London Standard. The questers of the Deputies, who have hitherto always rallied to the Government, have now taken as their cause an obscure Russian named Paulovici,

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

At New York yesterday there were landed 1,300 immigrants.

Mrs. James G. Blaine, Jr., of Sioux Falls, S. D., is expected for a few days under treatment by a prominent oculist for partial paralysis of the eyelids.

George B. McClellan, Pauline Hall's manager, is expected at Rochester, N. Y., last night that the story that he and Miss Hall were married was without foundation.

The Louisiana Democratic State central committee has today voted to refuse to agree as to submitting the lottery question to white primaries. The whole matter was tabled on motion of one of the opponents of the scheme.

Wm. Lyon, manager of the Marion Linseed-oil company, of Pittsburgh, committed suicide last night by shooting himself. He was 35 years of age and quite prominent. He has been in ill health for several years, and this is assigned as the cause of the deed.

The Beecher Memorial Congregational Church, of Brooklyn, was dedicated yesterday. Rev. R. B. Halliday, pastor in charge, presided. He has been in charge of the church for many years. Mr. Beecher's assistant at Plymouth Church, The handsome oak pulpit was made by the carpenter men of Brooklyn and New York.

At a mass-meeting of Republicans of St. Paul and Ramsey county, Minnesota, it was decided to send a delegation to support of Minneapolis's request that the Republican national convention be held in that city. The delegation will be composed of, and forwarded to Chairman Clarkson, of the national committee.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning four men were killed and a six-day bicycle contest in Madison-square Garden, New York, the seven final leaders to receive the prize money were determined. The gate receipts of the week. Thirteen hundred miles is the minimum record on which prize will be awarded. No safety wheels are used.

— The Sunday Magazine.

Chatanooga, Tenn.

The Sunday paper costs 5 cents; the magazine 30 to 50 cents, and the latter entirely new. The paper is sold for 10 cents. Thousands are buying the newspapers and dropping the magazine; and that is especially true of the Sunday paper.

Hypnotized Into Committing Suicide.
CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The globe, to-day, says, "The Sunday papers tell us that W. J. Hersen, who was found dead in his room at the Wellington Hotel, last Monday, after having been in the city for a week, was either hypnotized into committing suicide or murdered by a Mexican who has been hunting this city under the name of William Ellis, a man from whom young Hersen was supposed to be associated in some business enterprises. Ellis was Hersen's con-great influence over him. The police are looking for the Mexican, who has disappeared.

—

Ex-President Hoey Not Ready to Talk.

HOLLYWOOD, N. J., Oct. 18.—Ex-President John Hoey, of the Adams Express Company, arrived at his cottage here last night. His son Fred accompanied him, and has been with him ever since. The ex-president refused to receive any callers to-day, but sent word to a reporter that his statement would not be ready for publication until after he had had time to get things in any manner his recent difficulties. Mr. Hoey will return to New York to-morrow morning.

INDIANA.

A Coming Gas-Belt Town.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

REDEKY, Dec. 18. The town of Redkey, located on the northern shore of the Panhandle, and Lake Erie & Western railroads, is enjoying a modest but substantial boom. The Redkey crystal-plate and window-glass factory is being rapidly completed, and will be ready to begin operation Jan. 1. Mr. John Wilcox, who built the first glass factory at Funkhouser, is the chief mover in the enterprise. F. M. Millican, of Indianapolis, and Thomas Bagot and others, of New Castle, have purchased the site of the new plant on the western part of the town, which is now being laid out and built upon. Good inducements are being offered to attract new business, and will soon be established. The place has two excellent gas wells and others will be drilled. The town has a fine school, public facilities, and gas resources. Redkey is one

Tow's Jaw Troubling Him.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
MITCHELL, Oct. 18.—W. H. Tow, whose assassination was attempted last August by a man in ambush, whom he claims was his bitter enemy, Curtis Bass, is suffering severely from the pain in the lower jaw, which was shattered by the bullet. The jaw-bone was removed in August and he was getting along nicely, but a rising in the jaw necessitated the extraction to-day of more of the small part which remained. Tow is trustee of Marion township, and has had rather a remarkable career during the last year, having been shot at by Bass, the assassin of the governor of the Tow-Bass feud. He has great nerve, as shown

Awful Domestic Tragedy.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
SEYMOUR, Oct. 18.—Addison Arnold and his wife, each twenty-five years old, and one child, were killed by a constantly increasing quarrel. Last night, during a bitter jealous quarrel, Arnold placed the muzzle of a revolver in his mouth and blew the top of his head off with the life has become exposed over the tragedy.

Both Legs Cut Off.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
NOBLESVILLE, Oct. 18.—Frederick Bart, nine years old, while attempting to board a moving freight train this morning, lost his hold and fell under the wheels. He had both legs lacerated and the knee and arm, though still living, he cannot recover.

100

ing severely from his badly burned hands, but, beyond a sprained back, is not otherwise seriously hurt.

Elkhart fourth-class postmasters will protest vigorously against their present low remuneration.

Samuel Kesler's barn, on Otter Creek, near Brazil, burned, making a loss of $2,300; insurance, $250.

Mr. Albright, of Knightstown, is eighty-seven years old, and took her first ride on the east coast.

The public schools at Nobleville have been closed two weeks on account of an epidemic of diphtheria there.

John, a farmer near Goshen, gave his two children worming oil. One died, and the other is seriously ill. The oil

RAILWAY TIME TABLES.
From Indianapolis Union Station.

Pennsylvania Lines.

East—West. North—South.

Trains run by Central Standard Time.

Leave Indianapolis, 6:00 a. m. for Washington, Philadelphia and New York
Arrive from the East, 11:40 a. m. and 1:25 p. m. and 8:00 p. m.

Leave Columbus, 9:00 a. m. arrive from Columbus, 3:45 p. m. leave for Richmond, 4:00 p. m. arrive from Richmond, 9:00 a. m.

Leave Chicago, 11:30 a. m. arrive from Chicago, 11:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. arrive from Chicago, 4:30 p. m. and 4:30 p. m. Leave Louisville, 4:30 p. m. arrive from Louisville, 11:45 a. m.

Over four hundred teachers attended the Northern Illinois Teachers' Association's annual meeting held at Aurora last week. The young men charged with cheating Frederick Ruckelshuler, of Galia, out of $1,000 in a bogus foot-race, at Dallas City, last year, were acquitted of the charge of conspiracy.

A special train loaded with Nebraska products, in charge of fifty newspaper and business men, arrived in Peoria. The train is sent out to set at rest malicious reports concerning the State, and it will be taken to New York.

The board of managers of the Illinois State Reformatory had a conference with Governor Fifer last week, and agreed to offer the superintendency to Senator B. F. Sheets, the originator of the bill which established the reformatory.

***

WHAT DOES ENGLAND FEAR?

Over four hundred teachers attended the Northern Illinois Teachers' Association's annual meeting held at Aurora last week. The young men charged with cheating Frederick Ruckelshuler, of Galia, out of $1,000 in a bogus foot-race, at Dallas City, last year, were acquitted of the charge of conspiracy.

A special train loaded with Nebraska products, in charge of fifty newspaper and business men, arrived in Peoria. The train is sent out to set at rest malicious reports concerning the State, and it will be taken to New York.

The board of managers of the Illinois State Reformatory had a conference with Governor Fifer last week, and agreed to offer the superintendency to Senator B. F. Sheets, the originator of the bill which established the reformatory.

***

WHAT DOES ENGLAND FEAR?

British government has been hammering the Dominion and Canada should be alive to the defenses of Canada so that in the event of trouble the Dominion might not be solely dependent upon Great Britain for protection. The request for aid was carried out to the satisfaction of the British government. It is stated on the highest authority that the officer commanding the Dominion forces, General Herbert, was sent out to Canada to investigate the state of affairs and that the predecessors appear to have sorely neglected. That the relations existing between General Herbert and the Minister of Militia, Mr. Arthur Currier, are so strained as a result, is an open secret. There appears to be little doubt that it is the intention of the British government to send several regiments to Canada shortly. This is in consequence of the fact that again the fortifications at Halifax will

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—John A. Cella, storekeeper of the Cook County Inmate Asylum, was arrested last night for malfeasance in office in making false and fraudulent entries in the official record. He is said to be the man who has been systematically robbing Cook county of unknown sums of money. Last June bids were opened from eighteen firms to furnish coal to the institutions. The lowest bid was that of J. T. Nash, amounting to $100,000 for the year. The report—so low that it created suspicion. The firm got the contract, however, and was afterward discovered to be a dummy. It was owned by J. T. Nash, the twenty-third ward, and J. T. Nash, a sewer builder. They claimed to have control of a mine in the north end of the county. When it was discovered that store-keeper Cella borrowed the coal weigher's book ostensibly to transcribe the entries thereon, it was found that the weight on nearly every car from 2,000 to

ANOTHER EMBARGO RAISED.

M. Jules Simon made an anti-protectionist speech, in which he urged the committee of the French Exporters Union, after which that body adopted a resolution demanding that the Government should insist upon the free admission into France of raw materials and food stuffs.

BAILOUT CHOSEN.

Appointed First Lord of the Treasury and Leader of the British Commons.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—It is officially announced, to-day, that the Right Hon. Arthur J. Balfour, member of Parliament for East Manchester, and at present the Chief Secretary for Ireland, has been appointed First Lord of the Treasury.

The Right Hon. C. T. Ritchie is spoken of as Mr. Balfour's successor in the event of held that office in a thoroughly businesslike way. It is not thought probable that Lord Dufferin will be asked to join him in the Treasury, especially as he represents the rather doubtful constituency of North Devon. Sir John Eldon Lord has been named for the Irish office. In ability he is undoubtedly superior to either Jackson or Ritchie, Sir John Eldon Lord has Indian experience, which in the choice of magistrates for Ireland the Salisbury government has considered a qualification. It is probable that he will be asked to retain the chief secretaryship for a time, at least.

IRELAND'S FACTORS.

An Englishman's View of the Situation—The Church Wants to Dominate.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Pierce Mahoney, the successor of Parnell in command of the Christian and a disgrace to Irish journalism, would not be repeated. The latter remark created a sensation.

Religious Differences Should Not Exist.

On the Oct. 1st, at St. Parnell memorial meeting of Irish-American citizens of Chicago, held in Central Music Hall to-night, resolutions were adopted declaring that a final settlement of the Irish question must be based on Irish control of all Irish affairs, legislative and administrative, and urging the choice of a leader who would remove the party from the influence of the pope. It was declared that religious differences should no longer be the cause of separating the Irish people. Rev. C. C. Mahoney, Episcopal minister, was one of the principal speakers at the meeting, and was accorded the warmest kind of a reception.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

Raid on Eve of the Irish Nationalists, No-

to-day with considerable ceremony, this being the birthday of the late Emperor.

All local traffic has been suspended, owing to the danger of the cross-roads. The authorities report that the severity of the storm is unprecedented.

A Volcano Arises from the Sea.

ROME, Oct. 18.—The earthquake shocks at the Island of Pantellaria and its vicinity continue. A volcano has arisen in the bed of the sea off the Island of Pantellaria, which ejects masses of stones to a great height.

Cable Notes.

A vast number of the people of Dublin made a pilgrimage to the grave of Mr. Parnell yesterday.

The Pope is preparing an allocation concerning the recent French pilgrim disorders at the Pantheon.

The wife of the late William Henry Smith, the leader in the British House of Commons in the matter of the "Cotton Storage," the Peking government has directed its ambassador at St. Petersburg to demand

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

At New York yesterday there were landed 1,300 immigrants.

Mrs. James G. Blaine, Jr., of Sioux Falls, S. D., is expected for a few days under treatment by a prominent oculist for partial paralysis of the eyelids.

George B. McClellan, Pauline Hall's manager, is expected at Rochester, N. Y., last night that the story that he and Miss Hall were married was without foundation.

The Louisiana Democratic State central committee has today voted to refuse to agree as to submitting the lottery question to white primaries. The whole matter was tabled on motion of one of the opponents of the scheme.

Wm. Lyon, manager of the Marion Lin-

Hypnotized Into Committing Suicide.
CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The globe, to-day, says, that a Sunday paper, the Chicago Herald, has been found dead in his room at the Wellington Hotel, last Monday, after having been hypnotized into committing suicide or murdered by a Mexican who has been driving this city under the name of William Ellis, a man from whom young Hersen was supposed to be associated in some business enterprises. Ellis was Hersen's con-

INDIANA.

A Coming Gas-Belt Town.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

REDEKY, Dec. 18. The town of Redkey, located in the section of the Panhandle and Lake Erie & Western railroads, is enjoying a modest but substantial boom. The Redkey crystal-plate and window-glass factory is being rapidly completed, and will be ready to begin operation Jan. 1. Mr. John Wilcox, who built the first glass factory at Funk, and who is now owner of the Redkey plant, is the chief mover in the enterprise. F. M. Millican, of Indianapolis, and Thomas Bagot and others, of New Castle, have purchased the site of the new plant in the western part of the town, which is now being laid out and built upon. Good inducements are being offered to attract new business, and will soon be established. The place has two excellent gas wells and others will be drilled in the near future. The town has facilities, and gas resources. Redkey is one

Tow's Jaw Troubling Him.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
MITCHELL, Oct. 18.—W. H. Tow, whose assassination was attempted last August by a man in ambush, whom he claims was his bitter enemy, Curtis Bass, is suffering severely from the pain in the lower jaw, which was shattered by the bullet. The jaw-bone was removed in August and he was getting along nicely, but a rising in the jaw necessitated the extraction to-day of more of the small part which remained. Tow is trustee of Marion township, and has had rather a remarkable career during the last year, having been shot at by Bass, the assassin of the governor of the Tow-Bass feud. He has great nerve, as shown

Awful Domestic Tragedy.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
SEYMOUR, Oct. 18.—Addison Arnold and his wife, each twenty-five years old, and one child, were killed by a constantly increasing quarrel. Last night, during a bitter jealous quarrel, Arnold placed the muzzle of a revolver in his mouth and blew the top of his head off with the life has become exposed over the tragedy.

Both Legs Cut Off.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
NOBLESVILLE, Oct. 18.—Frederick Bart, nine years old, while attempting to board a moving freight train this morning, lost his hold and fell under the wheels. He had both legs lacerated and the knee and arm, though still living, he cannot recover.

100

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Over four hundred teachers attended the Northern Illinois Teachers' Association's annual meeting held at Aurora last week. The young men charged with cheating Frederick Ruckelshier, of Galia, out of $1,000 in a bogus foot-race, at Dallas City, last year, were acquitted of the charge of conspiracy.

A special train loaded with Nebraskas products, in charge of fifty newspaper and business men, arrived in Peoria. The train is sent out to set at rest malicious reports concerning the State, and it will be taken to New York.

The board of managers of the Illinois State Reformatory had a conference with Governor Fifer last week, and agreed to offer the superintendency to Senator B. F. Sheets, the originator of the bill which established the reformatory.

***

WHAT DOES ENGLAND FEAR?

Over four hundred teachers attended the Northern Illinois Teachers' Association's annual meeting held at Aurora last week. The young men charged with cheating Frederick Ruckelshier, of Galia, out of $1,000 in a bogus foot-race, at Dallas City, last year, were acquitted of the charge of conspiracy.

A special train loaded with Nebraskas products, in charge of fifty newspaper and business men, arrived in Peoria. The train is sent out to set at rest malicious reports concerning the State, and it will be taken to New York.

The board of managers of the Illinois State Reformatory had a conference with Governor Fifer last week, and agreed to offer the superintendency to Senator B. F. Sheets, the originator of the bill which established the reformatory.

***

WHAT DOES ENGLAND FEAR?

British government has been hammering the Dominion and Canada should be alive to the defenses of Canada so that in the event of trouble the Dominion might not be solely dependent upon Great Britain for protection. The request for aid was carried out to the satisfaction of the British government. It is stated on the highest authority that the officer commanding the Dominion forces, General Herbert, was sent out to Canada to investigate the state of affairs and that the predecessors appear to have sorely neglected. That the relations existing between General Herbert and the Minister of Militia, Mr. Arthur Currie, are so cordial as to be a result, is an open secret. There appears to be little doubt that it is the intention of the British government to send several regiments to Canada shortly. This is in consequence of the fact that again, the fortifications at Halifax, will

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—John A. Cella, storekeeper of the Cook County Inmate Asylum, was arrested last night for malfeasance in office in making false and fraudulent entries in the official record. He is said to be the man who has been systematically robbing Cook county of unknown sums of money. Last June bids were opened from eighteen firms to furnish coal to the institutions. The lowest bid was that of J. T. Nash, amounting to $100,000 for the year. The report—so low that it created suspicion. The firm got the contract, however, and was afterward discovered to be a dummy. It was owned by J. T. Nash, the twenty-third ward, and J. T. Nash, a sewer builder. They claimed to have control of a mine in Illinois and a large quantity of coal. When discovered that store-keeper Cella borrowed the coal nearly every book ostensibly to transact business and was selling it at a profit, the weight on weight every car from 2,000 to

